A Game of Color and

As Purple and White

By Edward J. Kelley, Jr., E.H.S. '58

It's a crisp Thanksgiving morning . . . The frost glistened on roads and fields as we hustled to the Stadium . . . Cambridge is tense with anticipation . . . There's military march music in the late November air . . . It's the day of days for Latin and for English . . . Hear those pre-game cheers?

Today marks the seventy-first anniversary of the inauguration of a tradition-rich schoolboy football series. Boston, the proud city of many another famous first, has warmly sponsored each annual game as it has occured.

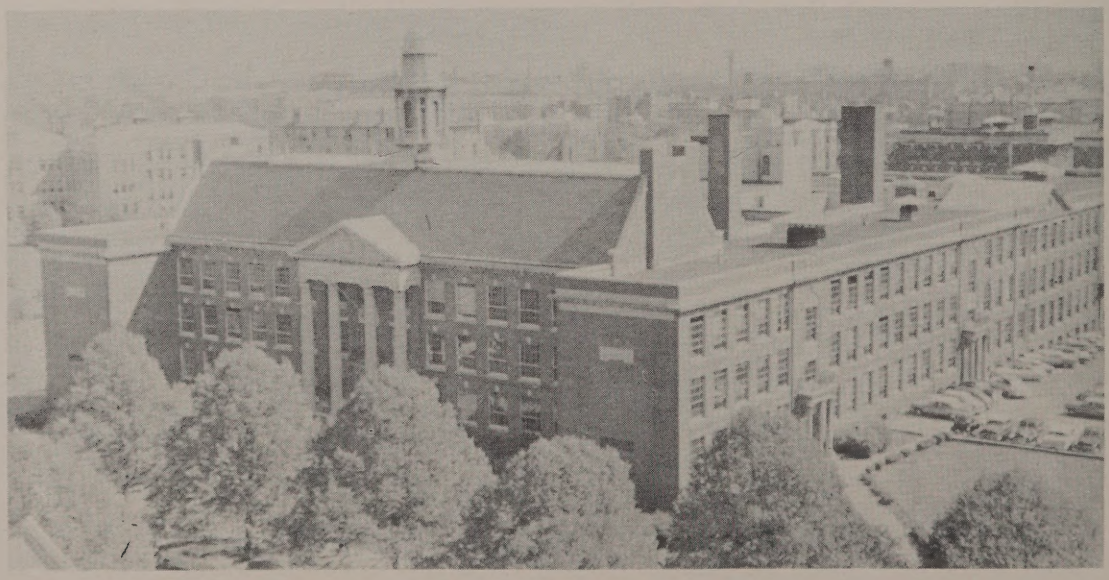
From 1887 to 1957 is a considerable span. There is no finer record in the realm of sport than the story of the continuing gridiron rivalry between the two oldest public secondary schools in the country, Latin and English.

Harvard's ivy-covered Stadium is, indeed, a fitting scene for this year's renewal of this classic. The Stadium itself, the first large, permanent arena for American college athletics, was built in 1903, mainly by funds from the 25th anniversary gift of the Class of 1879. Designed by the Harvard Engineering School faculty, the Stadium was the first massive structure of reinforced concrete in the world. Great teams have played here; great leaders have directed them. To play here is an inspiration to the boys of Boston Latin and English High. A regular cheer for Harvard!

Seventy-one years of undiminished intensity in their gridiron rivalry . . . The series might well be called an ivy series. No other schools have ever pre-empted the objective game position on the respective schedules. May it ever be thus!

One day a Sixie was heard asking whether Latin and English had not in fact invented football. An ancient history fan informed him that "Anyways, the Greeks and the Romans used to have some kind of football games." True enough, but it might well be that Boston Latin School antedates the English game of rugby. In the courtyard of Rugby School in England is a stone upon which a tribute is inscribed to a student of the seventeenth century (an "old boy," you know) "who, with a fine disregard for the rules of the game, picked up the ball and ran with it, thereby inaugurating the distinctive feature of the game."

Both Latin and English were seasoned educational institutions when the first collegiate



Good Sportsmanship

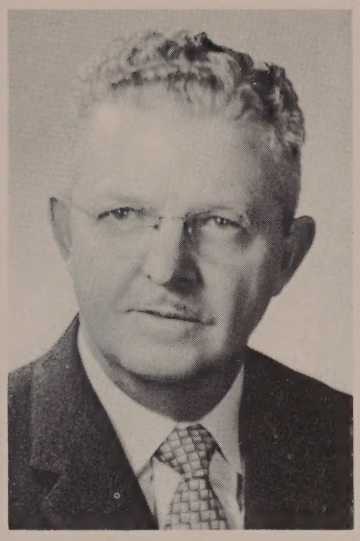
Meets Blue and Blue

game of American football was played by Princeton and Rutgers on November 16, 1869, the victory going to Rutgers. Columbia and Yale then adopted the game, with Harvard coming into the football picture in 1874.

Latin and English were not far behind the university across the Charles. They formed a combination gridiron team, as formidable as the combined courses of study of those days. From 1881 through 1886 the schools organized a combined team, something of a powerhouse aggregation. In 1887, each school fielded its own eleven, and the gridiron wars were on.

The marvelous team play featuring the entire series has clearly been attributable to the expert coaching enjoyed by the boys. The 1957 Purple and Blue squads have been equally as fortunate, as were their predecessors. Their precision on the field and their sportsmanship reveal a knowledge of the game and an idealism conveyed to them by their coaches. Boston's system is, and always has been, one of the best, underlining the ideal of victory-with-honor.

Good character and good scholarship are required of all those who aspire to wear the colors of their respective schools. Boston is proud of those boys down there on that field today. Boston is likewise proud of the schools they represent. The Boston Latin School enjoys world-wide respect for the high academic achievement of all her classes from the earliest to the most recent. From English High School, as well, the professions and engineering and commerce have drawn service and leadership. In the classroom, on the athletic field, in the world of men and vital affairs the student or the alumnus of these schools has endeavored to live up to the standards of performance and integrity taught him.



JOSEPH L. MALONE
English Head Master

But the teams are lining up now, and the combined bands are about to play "Our National Anthem."

The series at game time stands as follows: English, twenty-nine victories; Latin, twenty-eight; thirteen games tied. The outcome of this seventy-first renewal will be known before our Thanksgiving dinners are ready. Whatever the final score, good sportsmanship will prevail. As for us in the cheering sections, we are happy to be a part of the oldest and the best public school football rivalry in the Land.

Air: "Maryland, My Maryland"

Alma Mater, tried and true,
English High, Our English High
Oft our hearts may turn to you,
English High, Our English High.
Should e'er the laurel wreath be mine
I'll lay the honor at thy shrine,
Our hearts, our hopes, our prayers are thine,
English High, Our English High.

Personal Cheer

"BRACKETY AX" cheer

"Team, Team, Team".

English Aweigh

Tune: "Anchors Aweigh"

Go English down the field
Fight till you win;
Let that old football rival
Have it on the Chin chin chin
English on top of all
ALWAYS ON TOP
Now comes the time to score
So CRASH THAT RIVAL,
CRASH, THAT RIVAL LINE
Go English down the field,
Sons tried and true;
You'll always know you're
Right when fighting for the Blue blue blue blue
English on top of all
ALWAYS ON TOP
Now comes the time to score
So CRASH THAT RIVAL,
CRASH, THAT RIVAL LINE

Song

On the field of many colors
Latin's banners rise.
Cheer on cheer like volleyed thunder
Echoes to the skies!
See, the Latin team is rushing
Gaining more and more;
Then we'll fight! fight! fight!
For we win by might!

In Memory

of

MR. FREDERIC O. GIFFORD

who for many years served our school faithfully and well as a master in the English Department. Respectfully and affectionately remembered by all who were so fortunate as to have had him as their instructor.

From the Seniors of 103

TEN THOUSAND MEN OF ENGLISH WANT VICTORY TODAY

Cheering for THE TEAM until the final whistle are some of the ten thousand, the E.H.S. MEN of Rooms 16, 102, 107, 202, 207, 217, 218, 313, 322, and 323 . . . The old fight, Team!

From the Boys of 116, E.H.S.:

Latin's line has power,
The backs have brawn and speed;
But our Mighty Blue is ready
To give us what we need . . .

V-I-C-T-O-R-Y

Johnny in the backfield . . .
Bernie in the line . . .
Ma's turkey in the oven . . .
And ENGLISH doing fine!

HAPPY THANKSGIVING!

From '58 — 108

Go! English! Go!
We're with you all the way . . .
Go! English! Go!
And the BLUE will WIN today!

Glancing at the Record

SIXTY YEARS AGO

1897...South End Grounds...EHS 44 BLS 6...Football in the "mud and slush"... This is the theme song of many a Thanksgiving Day Game...As usual, for those days, account of game on front pages... The purple saved from whitewash by Breed's run of 110 yards (this 110 is no misprint)... It was the Blue's ball on the Purple's two...Teeven's, EHS back, started into the line with the ball...A huge pile-up...Out of the pile — with the ball — came Breed (L) and ran the length of the field...Adherents of the Blue and Blue had painted the goal posts those colors...In the 90's they didn't tear down goal posts — they painted them...Since 1893 a single touchdown had decided the games...This day EHS avenged the 1888 beating of 38-0 they had taken...Carey, Moran, and Kelley carried the load for the Purple...In a galaxy of Blue and Blue stars, Skip Sherlock stood out.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Locust Street Grounds...EHS 5 BLS 0... "The scene which greeted the eye of the vsiitor as he entered the gate made his blood thrill and his heart leap for joy. All around the field were the thousands of people; the stands, brilliant with waving banners and the many-colored garments of the enthusiastic spectators; the field itself, marked and crossed with white lines; the footballs flying high in the air; the players, all in uniform; the officials, hustling and bustling about; and the newspaper reporters, with their cameras. As this view met the sight, one was glad to be living, and the question arose whether the ancients, with all their games and jousts and tournaments, ever looked upon a prettier sight.

Suddenly, all was changed. The footballs ceased to fly, the officials ranged themselves on opposite sides of the field, the cheering of the "rooters" grew still, the stands were quiet, the players grouped around their respective coaches for one last word of advice; then the captains met in the middle of the field, the coin was tossed, the players spread about the field in their different positions, and every one held his breath, for the game was about to begin. As the players waited there, every nerve and muscle quivering with excitement, the teams seemed well matched. The referee's whistle blew, the ball was kicked high in the air, and the game was on." ...(Rather than an account of the game we thought you would enjoy how football was written then.)

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

1932...Fenway Park...18000 look on as BLS wins 18-7...A secret weapon was unveiled by Coach Charley FitzGerald in Buddy McLaughlin, a sophomore...On two occasions McLaughlin ran for 35 yards...grabbed a pass from Downes for a TD...grabbed a lateral for another ...Capt. Bill Timmins, Battles, Cooper, Agrillo, and Sweeney carried the Blue and Blue banner to the fray... Capt. Gavin (L) starred in the line for the Purple... Downes' passing noteworthy... Ike Sheehan (L) called a fine game at quarterback...used the "no signal" play well...But—as one writer put it—"McLaughlin's running was just too much."

TWENTY YEARS AGO

1937...Braves Field...A scoreless tie...20,000 saw the seventh scoreless tie in the series...NEWS: a beautiful day...Five times the Purple threatened and five times the wearers of the Blue turned them back...Latin messed up its chances...130 pound Dempsey (L) often required three English players to bring him down... Both teams made several fine plays...but all for Nought and Nought...Blue stars: Halloran, O'Brien, Reale, Gillis, and Capt. Cuddy...Purple Stars: Martin, Crowley, Radley, Hoar, Lambert, Walsh.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

1942...EHS wins 19-0 and wins City Title as well... After a slow first half (Gill scored for the blue) the 13,000 fans were delighted as they shivered and shook trying to identify the two players scoring the Blue second half TD's...The players were mud-covered after two plays...Gill, Kasabian, and Gilbert scored for the winners...Kasabian's 65 yard run for a touchdown was a thing of beauty...Gould, Noonan, and Wally Harwood stood out for the Purple...The mud on the field was at least three inches thick... It was difficult to tell which team had the ball...McMahon (E) and Rossi (E) did fine work in the EHS line...Year before, same score, but the Purple won then...The final touchdown came as Kasabian, about to be tackled after an eight yard gain, lateralled to Gilbert who ran 22 yards more to score.

TEN YEARS AGO

1947...Harvard Stadium...EHS 26 -BLS 13..."Underdog Latin had the game tucked away in its hip pocket... then, like a spendthrift on a spree, tossed away the advantage"...The Blue picked up the chips and the championship of the Boston Conference"...24,300 customers...The story of the game — Latin marched 73 yards ...Markoff plunged for score...Mabry kicked extra point ...Touched punt by the Purple and four plays later Dell Orfano (E) had the equalizer...A "phantom back" play and the Blue had the ball on the Latin two...Dell Orfano scored...Karys (E) scored...then with all the Blue backs taking part, English marched to a TD and Karys scored again...A 57 by Markoff (L) gave the Purple its second score...A desparation pass by the Purple — Sullivan to Dempsey went from midfield to the Blue nine, but the game was tucked away...Stars for EHS:— any backfield playing for Blue, plus Eisenstadt, Savino and Shawlis...For the Purple: Markoff, Mabry, Barton, Barbarisi.

FIVE YEARS AGO

1952...BLS 30 — EHS 12...Harvard Stadium...Game TV-ed, kept attendance down to 14,000... "despite its free-wheeling might Latin had to cash in in the last period of this hat-hoister to win"...Story of the game is in the scoring: Arena (L) 80 yards with opening kick-off for TD...Hadge and Burke (E) collaborated for TD... Carey (E) to Burke with a 39 yard pass, then Burke scored on a pitchout...At half-time: EHS 12 —BLS 6... Then Connolly (L) 55 yards to equalize...then Connolly 22 yards... then Dailey (L) intercepted Carey's pass for 24 points total... then Smith (L) recovered fumble on EHS six and Capt. Kannegieser went over for the last TD...Not one point after touchdown was kicked after the seven TD's..."Latin ate up the ground in large gobs, but fumble-itis took over, or penaltiies prevented scores" ...Example: Fitzgerald took hand-off on a punt and went 80 yards only to have the officials call clipping on the Purple back on the 48...Another: Hasiotis to Dickey pass for 40 yards, then on the next line play — fumble...Stars for the Blue: Hadge, Burke, Carey and Kinneally. Stars for the Purple! Capt. Kannegieser and the whole team — when not fumbling.

LAST YEAR

1956...B.U. Field... BLS 19 EHS 12... The Purple had to come from behind to win...and when Eastie unexpectedly defeated Southie, the Purple won the Conference Championship...Corvi, Latin passer, and Crosson combined for 3 TD's of 10, 36, and 65 yards ... Mullins took charge of the Blue attack ... Scored from the one, after a Latin fumble on the five and on a 15 yard pass from Donovan on the 44, put the Blue out in front 12-6... Latin's continual fumbling and penalties held the Purple at bay...The Blue fumbled on its 36, Crosson recovered, next play Corvi passed and scored, tieing the score... Fourth period: English on the march to the Purple 14...Fumble... Crosson recovered...Crosson up middle to 29... Johnson to 40... Crosson and DeYesso to 34...Clipping penalty-back to midfield...everyone knew a pass was coming...it came...and Latin was home... Blue stars: Mullins, Donovan, Stuart and LeBlanc...for the Purple: Crosson, Corvi, Johnson, McCool, and Laird.
